Estimated cost of your study abroad (in USD)

We are looking for a realistic estimate of your resources to fund study abroad. Receiving other scholarships and using personal or family savings or other funds for study does NOT hurt your chances of receiving the scholarship. You can combine the scholarship with other scholarships. If you have applied to multiple programs/schools and do not yet know which one you will be attending, use the figures for the most expensive program to calculate the cost of attendance. This will give us a maximum amount of your financial need. If you end up attending a less expensive program, then we can decrease your need and scholarship amount. You cannot increase your financial need nor the scholarship amount after submitting your application.

留学費用の推定額

留学に対する現実的な自己資金を、アメリカ上で提示してください。その他の奨学金、自分の貯金、家族の援助金、他の留学資金が奨学金の受給選考に不利になることはありません。複数のプログラム、又は大学に応募した場合、申請書には最高推定額（一番高額の大学の留学費用）を記入してください。もし、推定額より低い留学先が確定した場合、申請額を減らすことが出来ます。申請書提出後に申請額・奨学金を増やすことは不可能です。

In this section, we want to know the direct costs of your study abroad program. This budget estimate does not include things like commissions, fees, salary, visa or passport costs, TOEFL/GRE/Eiken test fees, etc.

Please note that the form will automatically tabulate the amounts you enter. So you do not have to do the math; just be sure to fill in the fields with the correct amounts.

Tuition (学費) *

Japanese applicants participating in an exchange program should enter the sum of their home school tuition (in USD) and any exchange program costs in the tuition section. Please note that the maximum for the home school tuition amount is $6,000 per year.

U.S. applicants doing an exchange program, please enter $0 for tuition, as we are unable to cover U.S. institution's tuition costs at this time.
