SECURITY & DEFENSE: NATIONAL SECURITY IN THE UNITED STATES AND JAPAN

MARC MORI
Director, NuanceBlue, LLC

マーク・モリ
ニュアンスブルー社 ディレクター

Mr. Mori's work spans from security consulting to community service. He is a board member and project manager at AP Math Creative & Intelligence Labs, which creates social media campaigns that explore alternatives to violence for companies and social causes. He is also a facilitator for Be the Peace, Be the Hope Foundation in Houston. Previously, he worked for 24 years with the FBI, where he organized dialogues with community members finding common ground, while addressing violent narratives of groups affecting our society. He has worked in the fields of intelligence, counterintelligence, counterterrorism, cybersecurity and computer forensics. He understands the potential risks and rewards when technology is combined with human creativity. He was born in Tokyo and is married with three teenage children. Their daughter, Audrey, is a college student.

ED SHAW
Special Agent, FBI (retired)

エド・ショー
元FBI特別捜査官

Mr. Shaw enjoyed a 25 year career as a Special Agent of the FBI. In addition to his domestic assignments, he served two tours at the FBI liaison office at the U.S. Embassy in Tokyo. Early in his career he moved to Japan, where he taught English at a college, created product and marketing strategy for Seibu (a major department store chain) in Tokyo, and handled public relations for Japan's largest financial newspaper. He also served for two years as the secretary of the Houston chapter of the American Society of Industrial Security, and is currently the secretary of the Houston chapter of the Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI. He graduated with a J.D. from the UC Davis School of Law, and is an active member of the California Bar.
